PATENTED ROSES

WHAT THEY MEAN TO THE RETAIL NURSERYMAN

All growers of Patented Roses are acting in the capacity of agents for the patent holders. We quote, therefore, from our several license agreements: "These patented varieties of roses are sold under license from patent owner." In these license agreements, we, as growers, are bound to sell only to retailers who abide by the price schedules recommended by the patent owners.

Nurserymen stocking a line of these Patented Roses are thus protected from price cutting by any and all competitors. This is really a sound reason for the Retail Nurseryman to stock a good selection of patented varieties.

Rose fanciers are well informed of these new varieties thru extensive information published in the many editions distributed by the American Rose Society. Also these patented sorts are placed before the rose buying public in the form of many fine catalogues, with accurate descriptions and color reproductions of practically all patented varieties. This will aid you in increasing your sales.

Herewith are listed some of the best of the newer varieties:

? APPLAUSE, Pat. No. 942 (Bagatelle Gold Medal winner at Paris, France).

OK BUTTERSCOTCH, Pat. No. 613 (Pure Butterscotch yellow).

CALIFORNIA CENTENNIAL, Pat. No. applied for (excellent new red rose commemorating the birthday of our State, named California one hundred years ago, intensely fragrant and of vigorous habit).

? CRIMSON ROSETTE, Pat. No. 967 and PINK ROSETTE, Pat. No. 970, (two new rosette-type roses, forming large, vigorous heads. See cover).

OK NOCTURNE, Pat. No. 713.

OK PEACE, Pat. No. 591 (heaviest selling variety last season).

SAN FERNANDO, Pat. applied for (best of the Mission Roses, with Heart's Desire fragrance).

? SLEIGH BELLS, Pat. No. 946 (a white rose that really grows and blooms and blooms and blooms).

OK TAFFETA, Pat. No. 716 (new AARS winner).
